

Thank you for booking a tour at the Dock Museum

Please be aware that the Dock Museum building and site have inherent risks, including deep water and mezzanine floors over the dock. When visiting the museum, please ensure the correct ratio of adults will be available to supervise pupils.

Schools are welcome and encouraged to risk assess the site and building prior to the scheduled visit.

ACTIVITY: Educational visit to the Dock Museum

HAZARD	CONTROLS	RISK RATING & LEVEL (likelihood x severity)
Falling object - Heavy accessible objects on display- risk of injury of public picking up heavy objects and dropping	Warding by museum staff. DO NO TOUCH signs displayed at vulnerable objects. Objects with moving parts have been immobilized. School groups informed during school tours objects must only be handled under supervision. Objects positioned so they cannot fall off display by accident.	1=low
Fire - Wheelchair users- evacuation if fire brigade not able to attend	2 hour safe holding areas within North Stairs Fire Escape. 1 hour safe holding area within South Stairs Fire Escape. Wheelchair access restricted to 2 on lower floors.	2=low

	BAE staff member will attend in event of activation and will be able to assist. Evacuation procedures in place. Evacuation chair available for individuals able to manoeuvre themselves into the chair, & staff trained in its operation.
Trip or slip on the same level - Visitor access to main porch-slip hazard when raining	Anti-slip flooring Anti-slip mat at entrance. Squeegee used to remove access standing water throughout the day, if required.	1=low
Fall from Height - Dock hall galleries-falling from height of top & middle floors	Barriers installed around the upper levels of the Shipbuilder's gallery. Warding staff vigilant when groups of young people in. Booked school groups have to be accompanied by appropriate numbers of adults. Booked groups briefed of layout/house rules i.e.: No running/climbing. Polycarbonate sheeting installed in 2013 to make climbing over the bannisters very difficult.	1=low
Equipment related - Passenger lift: delay to releasing passengers from lift.	Lift alarm button installed, checked daily by staff. Alarm sounds near reception desk.	0.5 = Low

	Direct line to Concept elevators installed in lift, passengers are reassured help is on the way. Fire alarm procedure in place. Fire service can be called out to assist. CCTV in lift - monitored by Securitas. If engineer expected time of arrival exceeds one hour staff must call out fire brigade.
Exposure to a hazardous substance - Boatbuilders workshop - materials used could be put in mouth/ears/ eyes by children	Supervision at all times during the workshops, by Dock Museum or school staff. Teachers are advised upon booking to ensure additional adults attend to help supervise the children. Teachers to ensure children do not rub eyes if hands dirty. Child-safe materials to be used. Signs up requesting that individuals wash their hands at the end of the workshop.	2= Low
Trip or slip on the same level - Bridge access and wooden ramps - slippery surface in rain and frost. Build up of water on anti-slip surface could freeze and cause slips	"Caution Slippery Surface" signs installed on all ramps/steps and the bridge. Anti-slip surface installed on bridge, steps and ramps. Wooden railings act as handrail supports. Streetcare grit the roads under icy conditions.	1=Low
Drowning or	Steel railings with upper/mid/lower rails installed around	2=Low

asphyxiation - Dockside – young children getting under railings/chains falling into water/wet sand	entire area with twin chains at access points. Railings set back approx. 1 metre from edge where possible. 2 Lifebelts provided at max distance of 60 metres at most Lifebelts checked daily when the Museum is open. “Danger Deep Water” and “No Swimming” warning signs installed around the Dock Throw-line at reception. Staff vigilant where possible. Teachers are invited to visit the site to conduct their own risk assessments. They are advised there is deep water on site and requested to ensure they have adequate staffing to supervise the children.
Fall from Height - Slips, trips and falls in the playground	Safety matting installed. Site checked daily by playgrounds team. Site checked daily when the Museum is open by Dock Museum staff. Hazards reported to Streetcare immediately. Playground has inherent risks	3=Low